City Investors Circle February 2018 update issued

City Investors Circle monthly investor update for February 2018 has just been issued. Comments include why stocks have suddenly become volatile, why that may continue, and what may happen to crypto currencies next.

To receive your free update please email andrew@city-investors-circle.com or go to www.city-investors-circle.com and fill in the subscribe section.

.

City Investors Circle monthly investor update for February 2018 has just been issued. Features this month include why stocks have suddenly become volatile, and what may happen to cryptos next.

Our free to receive monthly update features news and views from the world of investments, what to watch out for, and information on our always free to attend presentations.

Our presentations always take place in the City, and are wonderful events where you can meet the CEO’s of exciting junior companies, and network with fellow investors and city professionals in a relaxed atmosphere.

To receive yours please email andrew@city-investors-circle.com or go to www.city-investors-circle.com and fill in the subscribe section.