Lithium Power International sale of Argentinian assets slightly delayed

Lithium Power International {ASX: LPI}

The company has announced that the sale of their interests in the Centenario Salar lithium assets in Argentina, agreed to be completed by the 30th April, has not completed, and the deadline has been extended until the 14th May.

A $1 million deposit has already been paid.

Lithium Power International {ASX: LPI}

The company has announced that the sale of their interests in the Centenario Salar lithium assets in Argentina, agreed to be completed by the 30th April, has not completed, and the deadline has been extended until the 14th May.

A $1 million deposit has already been paid.

To read the full article, please click HERE