Mr. Brian Causey reports

CASCADERO ANNOUNCES PASSING OF PRESIDENT AND CEO

Cascadero Copper Corp.'s president and chief executive officer, Judith Harder, has died after a brief illness.

Ms. Harder was a long-time director and officer of the company, whose optimism and energy have helped to sustain the company as it has sought opportunities in a challenging business environment. The board appreciates Ms. Harder's tireless efforts, and thoughts are with her family at this difficult time.

The board has not yet had an opportunity to appoint an interim president and chief executive officer. A new president and chief executive officer, mutually acceptable to the company and InCoR Holdings PLC, will be appointed, as contemplated by the binding term sheet between the parties that was announced by the company on Dec. 10, 2018.
