

City Investors Circle February Market Update published

City Investors Circle – February 2016 Market Update has been sent out to subscribers.

To subscribe to receive our free monthly market update please email Rhea@city-investors-circle.com

Our free Monthly Market Update is sent out by email at the end of each month, and features general market commentary and all the news from the companies we follow.

The focus is on junior development companies, mainly in the resource sector, but we do follow selected companies from other sectors, and are looking to expand this.

To receive your free copy each month, please email Rhea@city-investors-circle.com

Rhea will send you this month's update and place you on the list to receive all future updates and invitations to our events as they occur.

We respect your privacy and never release your details to third parties.