Colonial Coal announce Waller nominated as a director – AGM date set

Colonial Coal {TSX.V: CAD} have announced the nomination of Gregory A Waller to become a director of the company, at their forthcoming AGM.

The company have also set the date for the forthcoming AGM, the 13th September 2017.

Mr. David Austin reports

COLONIAL COAL NOMINATES GREGORY A. WALLER FOR DIRECTOR

Gregory A. Waller has consented to putting his name forward, with the support the entire board of directors, for nomination for election as a director of Colonial Coal International Corp. {TSX.V: CAD} at the corporation's coming annual general meeting materials to be held on Sept. 13, 2017.

Mr. Waller has over 30 years of experience in the mining industry as a senior executive in the areas of investor relations, business and corporate development, marketing, and finance.

Currently, Mr. Waller is senior vice-president, investor relations and strategic analysis, for Teck Resources Ltd. He has been a key member of the senior management team at Teck and involved with numerous acquisitions, financings and other strategic initiatives. Mr. Waller holds an MBA from the University of Calgary and a BComm from the University of British Columbia.

David Austin, president and chief executive officer of Colonial Coal, stated: "We are very pleased to have Greg join our board. His extensive experience in corporate development and finance, with deep knowledge of the metallurgical coal industry, will be an excellent complement to our existing board."

About Colonial Coal International Corp.

Colonial Coal is a publicly traded coal corporation in British Columbia that focuses primarily on coking coal projects. The northeast coal block of British Columbia, within which the corporation's projects are located, hosts a number of proven deposits and has been the subject of merger and acquisition activities by Xstrata, Walter Energy, Anglo-American and others.

We seek Safe Harbor.