

Colonial Coal appoints a new CFO

Colonial Coal International Corp. {TSX.V: CAD} has appointed Matthew James Anderson as the company's secretary and chief financial officer.

Mr. Anderson's appointment follows the recent retirement of William Filtness as an executive officer of the company.

Colonial Coal appoints Anderson secretary, CFO

2017-07-14 14:51 ET – News Release

Mr. David Austin reports

COLONIAL COAL ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW CFO.

Colonial Coal International Corp. has appointed Matthew James Anderson as the company's secretary and chief financial officer.

Mr. Anderson's appointment follows the recent retirement of William Filtness as an executive officer of the company.

David Austin, president and chief executive officer, stated:
"On behalf of the board of directors, we are extremely appreciative for the vast experience and knowledge that Bill brought to his work life at Colonial Coal. Bill will be very much missed by all."

Mr. Anderson has significant experience in financial and accounting-related functions for natural resource issuers. He serves as a senior consultant with Malaspina Consultants Inc., a private company that provides accounting and administrative infrastructure to junior public companies. He also serves as the CFO of several other junior public companies, including I-Minerals Inc. and Callinex Mines Inc. Mr. Anderson holds a bachelor of commerce degree from McGill University, and he is a chartered professional accountant.

About Colonial Coal International Corp.

Colonial Coal is a publicly traded coal corporation in British Columbia that focuses primarily on coking coal projects. The Northeast coal block of British Columbia, within which the corporation's projects are located, hosts a number of proven deposits, and has been the subject of merger and acquisition activities by Xstrata, Walter Energy, Anglo-American and others.

We seek Safe Harbor.