Colonial Coal {TSX.V: CAD}

Has been selected by the prestigious and respected Northern Miner Magazine of Canada as “one of BC’s four exploration projects with the highest NPV’s”

Colonial recently updated the PEA for their Huguenot property, located near Tumbler Ridge in B.C. This gave the NPV of Huguenot at around Canadian $ 1.5 billion.

CAD also have the highly prospective Flatbed licence, where they already have some 300 million tons of coal discovered, and potential for a higher figure through a follow up drill program.
