

Colonial Coal upgraded to a “buy” by ValuEngine

Colonial Coal {TSX.V: CAD} has been upgraded to a “buy” from a “hold” rating by the US based research company ValuEngine

ValuEngine upgraded shares of Colonial Coal in a research report published on Thursday.

Colonial Coal {TSX.V: CAD} has been upgraded to a “buy” from a “hold” rating by the US based research company ValuEngine

ValuEngine upgraded shares of Colonial Coal in a research report published on Thursday.

Colonial Coal International Corp. is an exploration-stage company.

The Company’s principal activities include acquisition, exploration and development of coal properties located in Canada. Its portfolio projects include Flatbed Coal Project, Tuya River Project, and Huguenot Coal Project.

.

Its Flatbed Coal Project is a metallurgical coal project consisting of approximately eight coal licenses covering a total area of approximately 9,610 hectares.