(TSX: OLA; NYSE American: ORLA) are pleased to announce the successful completion of their previously announced business combination (the “Transaction”), creating North America’s new senior gold

The combined company is expected to produce approximately 1.1 million ounces of gold annually¹, with a clear path to more than 1.9 million ounces² as its high-quality North American growth projects are developed.

Highlights

- Combined company anticipated to produce 1.1 million ounces of gold annually
- Clear path to more than 1.9 million ounces through high-quality North American growth projects
- Planned Chief Executive Officer succession positions the Company for its next phase of growth

The combined company brings together a portfolio of high-quality producing mines, a peer-leading pipeline of growth projects, substantial free cash flow generation and highly experienced leadership and technical teams.

Upon closing of the transaction, Ross Beaty has stepped down as Chairman of the Board and has been appointed Chairman Emeritus and Special Advisor to the Board. Chuck Jeannes has been appointed incoming Chairman of the Board.

Ross Beaty, retiring Chairman of Equinox Gold, stated:

“It has been immensely rewarding to see that vision take shape, culminating in our combination with Orla, which now positions Equinox Gold as a senior gold mining company with tremendous potential for further growth.

“While I am stepping down as Chairman, I am not stepping away, and I look forward to contributing to the company’s continued success as Special Advisor to the Board.

“I want to sincerely thank my fellow directors, our employees, our shareholders, and the communities where we operate for their trust and support. Building companies is always a team effort. I am proud of what we have accomplished together and excited to see the Company continue to grow, create value, and seize the opportunities ahead.”

Darren Hall, CEO of Equinox Gold,
