Gold Road Resources New Corporate Presentation

Gold Road (ASX: GOR)

Published a new corporate presentation for the conference season, highlighting recent production performance, slightly higher gold recoveries, and cash held in the bank.

The hedge was completely paid off earlier in the year, ensuring maximum revenue to the bottom line.

The Gruyere JV deposit is still open at depth, potentially adding a substantial additional resource and extending the life of mine.

The company has several exploration projects, 100% owned, in which to invest it’s cash, and the financial muscle to fund aggressive exploration campaigns.

With higher gold prices, and a 19.9% investment in De Grey Mining, plus other investments, the company looks in good shape for 2024.
