Lithium Power International update on the “CEOL” matter before the Chilean Courts

Lithium Power International {ASX: LPI}

Provided a response to media reports on the licensing matter currently before the Chilean courts.
The case relates to the awarding of a CEOL to exploit lithium to the state-owned copper company, Codelco, immediately prior to the change of Chile’s government on 11 March 2018. The CEOL covers the entire Maricunga Salar, including properties owned by LPI’s joint venture entity Minera Salar Blanco SA.

.

.

To read the article in full, please click HERE