London Mines and Money Conference Starts Today

Mines and Money – London

The Resourcing Tomorrow conference as it's now called begins this morning at the normal venue of the Design Centre at Islington. It's generally a cold walk from Angel tube station.

Looking at the lineup of companies I am struggling to find many I want to meet and consider investing in, so I'll only be staying for two days.

Mines and Money – London

The Resourcing Tomorrow conference as it's now called begins this morning at the normal venue of the Design Centre at Islington.

Due to it's height, It's generally a cold walk from Angel tube station, and this year looks like it will be the same. To avoid the registration queues I don't arrange any early meetings,

Looking at the lineup of companies I am struggling to find many I want to meet and consider investing in, so I'll only be staying for two days.

Today I'm only meeting one company from our watchlist, Impact Minerals Ltd. I'm looking forward to connecting with Dr. Mike Jones again, and I'm anxious to learn about the next steps in Impact's Lake Hope HPA project in Western Australia.

Other compoanies I have a meeting with today include Borealis Mining, Cornwall Resources (Private), Exploits Discovery, Great Boulder Resources, and US Gold Corp.

So a small, select list, as I just don't see the point of making meetings for the sake of it just to fill out the day. I also like to have no more then two meetings in a row before having an empty slot to write notes up, have a coffee etc.

I'll write a summary of the first day later.
