City Investors Circle Market Review 30th November 2024

This month's highlighted company is G2 Goldfields, whom I met at the SMI Conference in Zurich, after having met them before in London.

The attraction is the high-grade gold on their property, which abuts G Mining Venture's G4 property, in Guyana.

I feel there is a strong possibility of corporate action with G2, AngloGold have just taken a stake, and G Mining must be a candidate if a takeover battle ensues.

The Trump election victory ended gold's positive run and mining stocks have fallen back as a result.

The company watchlists had a poor month, with virtually all share prices falling from a month ago, although most have rallied and recovered some of the loss.

Only a few companies remained in positive territory, notably Colonial Coal, Capricorn Metals, and UEC.
