

Merry Christmas from City Investors Circle

Merry Christmas from City Investors Circle.

It's been a really tough year for us all, but we have reached the time of celebration and goodwill.

We should be positive for 2021, and seek to regain some normality in our lives, but also pause to remember those that have been lost along the way.

Merry Christmas from City Investors Circle.

It's been a really tough year for us all, but we have reached the time of celebration and goodwill.

We should be positive for 2021, and seek to regain some normality in our lives, but also pause to remember those that have been lost along the way.