Review 26th July 2026

Avino Silver, New Murchison Gold, and Westgold posted quarterly results.

Cabral Gold and Lahontan announced good drill results.

+++++++

It was another turbulent week in the markets, particularly mining stocks and commodities, as Trump's war on Iran swayed to and fro from total annihilation of the population to peace talks, on a daily basis.

It's nigh on impossible to time an entry at the moment so I just take a long term view and ignore the noise.

I traded a little with my Pacgold sale funds, adding to my position in Equinox Gold as it simply looks too cheap in my opinion. I am taking a long term view based on a premier management team that has been successful in creating shareholder value over a number of companies.
