Mining Review 27th April 2025

Capricorn Metals dominated the news this week, first by announing the CEO has stood down whilst he contests a case of assault, and then the company announced a new land acquisition near Mt. Gibson.

Gold trod water, as did most metals as Trump started to backtrack on his tariffs.

Mining Review 27th April 2025

Capricorn Metals dominated the news this week, first by announing the CEO has stood down whilst he contests a case of assault, and then the company announced a new land acquisition near Mt. Gibson.

The stock was punished severely for the CEO assault announcement, despite him saying he is going to contest the case. This was a great shame as the sock had built up wuite a bot of momentum, and this surprise announcement has stopped the rise for now.

We iniated coverage of Minerals 260 in our tier 2 watchlist.

BPM Minerals published a disappointing drill result near Capricorn's Mt. Gibson project, and is now searching for new targets in the area.
