Comment

This is a fantastic achievement for a company that has persevered through some very lean early years, yet always kept their belief in their graphite project, and their ability to bring the project through to production.

When CEO Eric Desaulniers first presented to us in London, NOU were a 10 cent stock struggling for funding in a horrible mining financing environment, which illustrates what an achievement this NYSE listing really is.

Well done Eric and his team!
