

Onecoin websites taken down as the ponzi scheme finally crumbles

Onecoin – Websites taken down

The Onecoin ponzi scheme continues to crumble, as their websites are taken down and suspended, although it has not been announced why, or by whom.

This follows the conviction of Konstantin Ignatov, after doing a plea deal with the US authorities, and the company lawyer, US based Mark Scott. Founder Ruja Ignatova is being sought by the authorities who are currently unable to locate her.
