Orla Mining Reports Resumption of Operations at Camino Rojo

Vancouver, BC – June 5, 2026– Orla Mining Ltd. (TSX: OLA; NYSE: ORLA) (“Orla” or the “Company”) is pleased to report that the illegal blockade has ended and operations have resumed at its Camino Rojo Mine in Zacatecas, Mexico.

Dialogue continues onsite between management, employees, and the union including the resumption of bonus negotiations.

Without further interruptions, the Company reiterates its 2026 gold production guidance for Camino Rojo of 110,000 to 120,000 ounces.

Jason Simpson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Orla Mining said,

“We are pleased to welcome our employees back to work and thank the union and the Mexican Labour Authority for their partnership in resolving the matter.”

“We look forward to continuing our dialogue with the employees and union partners to reach a mutually beneficial agreement on the productivity bonus.”

“The Company continues to engage constructively with our employees, and union leadership, with the support of federal labour authorities, and looks forward to providing further updates as the process advances.”
