

Mining Review Sunday Update 9th January 2022

City Investors Circle Mining Review 9th Jan. 2022

Gold has fallen back once again after the FED indicated it would raise interest rates in March, and the US dollar and bond yields rose.

Gold is hanging around $1,800, but many market commentators are predicting a fall as the rate hike nears, so maybe a time to look at moving some funds into cash until the next gold bull run starts. Gold stocks are already beaten up with many falling around 50% in a year, so you have to ask how much more can they fall?

Copper and some other base metals covered by the Market Review also fell, as the US dollar gained strength.

City Investors Circle Mining Review 9th Jan. 2022

Gold has fallen back once again after the FED indicated it would raise interest rates in March, and the US dollar and bond yields rose.

Gold is hanging around $1,800, but many market commentators are predicting a fall as the rate hike nears, so maybe a time to look at moving some funds into cash until the next gold bull run starts. Gold stocks are already beaten up with many falling around 50% in a year, so you have to ask how much more can they fall?

Copper and some other base metals also fell as the US dollar gained strength.

Fiore Gold and Calibre Mining shareholders voted through the takeover proposal, so Fiore Gold will disappear from the market next Wednesday. I am still undecided whether to sell Fiore before the day or accept Calibre shares.

Calibre has a good treasury and is using a 'hub and spoke' system to mine smaller deposits in Nicaragua, and is profitable, yet it seems unloved by the market, and you have to ask yourself why?

Nicaragua is a bit of a backwater, with only a handful of mining companies working there, and not much known about the country, I guess it's just not exciting or sexy. It's run by a president who imprisons opponents before elections, and I guess that doesn't inspire confidence, even if he is clearly mining friendly and sees the benefits it brings to the country.

I think Calibre wanted Fiore to diversify into the US and try and shake of the stigma of only being in Nicaragua, and Fiore was a cheap way to buy production, have a second mine operating in two years, and have exploration upside potential.

Calibre have a good treasury, are profitable, and are looking to instigate some exploration around Fiore's Pan mine.

A profitable company currently with a market cap of CAD$445 million with a treasury of CAD$79 million looks a decent bet to me, even in a depressed gold market.

Fiore Gold Shareholders Agree Calibre Mining Deal

Fiore Gold (TSX.V: F)

At the Meeting, the Shareholders passed a special resolution approving the proposed acquisition by way of a plan of arrangement by Calibre Mining Corp.

Comment

*And so Fiore is gone, such a shame as I thought a dedicated management team were doing a good job of growing their production organically.
I am undecided about whether to continue as a shareholder of Calibre Mining, and am waiting to clarify a press report from the USA before deciding.
Calibre are not getting much notice in my opinion, maybe because they're in Nicaragua and that's a bit of an unknown country, despite there being a supportive government looking to improve their GDP with additional mining.
They have a strong treasury and will be able to advance Fiore's projects quicker, so it's not all bad, and they may gain credibility by diversifying into the USA.*

Comment

After the recent takeovers of Roxgold and Apollo Consolidated, Fiore Gold have now received an agreed bid.

A saying about London bues springs to mind. If this continues our watchlist is going to be decimated.!

I have mixed feelings about this, I believe Fiore is a good company with decent projects, but recently had been lacking a bit of momentum, despite good newsflow. A depressed gold price didn't help of course.

I met Calibre Mining recently and thought they had a good set of projects and looked undrvalued given they are in production. I think the negative is they are based in Nicaragua, which is off the beaten track as far as mining goes. They have few peers in the country, and a dodgy political scenario, with opposition candidates being arrested ahead of the elections, never a good sign of stability...

I actually hope another bid arrives, but management seem happy, so that's probably a forlorn hope.

I am going to have to think long and hard before I decide whether to keep the Calibre shares I will receive, or sell and look elsewhere, not an easy decision as I like Fiore's mines and projects.

Calibre Announces Acquisition of Fiore in Nevada Creating a Diversified, Americas-Focused, Growing Mid-Tier Gold Producer

Vancouver, B.C. – October 25, 2021: Calibre Mining Corp. (TSX: CXB; OTCQX: CXBMF) (“Calibre” or the “Company”) and Fiore Gold Ltd. (TSX.V: F; OTCQB: FIOGF) (“Fiore”) are pleased to announce that they have entered into a definitive arrangement agreement (the “Arrangement Agreement”) whereby Calibre will acquire all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Fiore pursuant to a court-approved plan of arrangement (the “Transaction”).

The Transaction will create a diversified, Americas-focused, growing mid-tier gold producer with targeted annual gold production of approximately 245,000 ozs ¹.

The combined company will have comprehensive technical capabilities to exploit a pipeline of development and exploration opportunities across a broader portfolio. This growth strategy will be supported by a strong balance sheet with a combined cash balance of $96 million and no bank debt (as at September 30, 2021).

Calibre will be acquiring a 100% interest in Fiore’s operating Pan Gold Mine (“Pan Mine”), the adjacent advanced-stage Gold Rock Project (“Gold Rock”) and the past producing Illipah Gold Project in Nevada, as well as the Golden Eagle project in Washington State.

All amounts are in United States dollars unless otherwise indicated.

Highlights of the Transaction

Key highlights following completion of the Transaction include:

- Creates a diversified, Americas-focused, growing mid-tier gold producer with targeted annual gold production of approximately 245,000 ozs and AISC of $1,020 per ounce¹.
- Nevada gold production of 50,000 ozs per year at the Pan Mine¹.
- Supported by a mineral resource base of 4.4 Mozs measured and indicated and 3.1 Mozs inferred.
- Strong balance sheet with $96M in cash and zero bank debt (as at September 30, 2021).
- Strong free cash flow generation to fully fund organic growth initiatives.
- Growth driven by near-term development of the federally permitted and fully-funded Gold Rock project in Nevada and the Eastern Borosi project in Nicaragua.
- Multiple near-mine, high impact exploration targets to support mineral reserve and mine life expansion.
- Proven management team, led by Darren Hall as Chief Executive Officer and Blayne Johnson as Chairman, with a long track record of shareholder value creation.
- Attractive relative valuation versus gold peers.
- Enhanced market presence with broad research analyst coverage, trading liquidity and index inclusions.

Fiore Gold management comments

"We are pleased to undertake this combination with Calibre to create a new mid-tier gold producer with excellent growth prospects. There is a great deal of common ground between our companies."

"In the past few years, we have both overseen the successful ramp-up of our respective assets through solid operating discipline and ESG focus. While staying focused on cash flow generation and capital allocation discipline, we have both prioritized organic growth through successful exploration, reserve replacement, regional land acquisition, and progression of our development assets."

"Our shared culture of operating and fiscal integrity creates an excellent fit. We have tremendous respect for the Calibre team and their successful implementation of a "hub and spoke" mining and milling strategy in Nicaragua."

"Calibre's assets were formerly cornerstone assets of B2Gold and have produced gold over a multi-decade history."

"Not only will Fiore shareholders be exposed to this considerably larger and more diversified production profile, but within a larger company, we expect to enjoy higher trading liquidity and deeper institutional ownership."

Tim Warman, Chief Executive Officer of Fiore Gold

Calibre Mining management comments

"This transaction is the type of value-add diversified growth we set out to accomplish when we partnered with B2Gold to acquire our initial gold production. The addition of a top-tier, low-risk mining jurisdiction in Nevada creates a lower risk profile with greater asset and country diversification.

“The Pan heap leach gold mine brings an immediate increase to our production and cash flow, in addition to significant exploration potential. This transaction unlocks value for both Calibre and Fiore shareholders and further demonstrates Calibre’s commitment to building a quality diversified mid-tier gold producer.”

Blayne Johnson, Chairman of Calibre Mining

“Calibre has delivered on its commitment to create value for its shareholders through a disciplined operating and exploration approach.

“This transaction builds on that commitment, bringing a diversified asset base with immediate production and strong exploration upside in one of the top gold mining jurisdictions in the world.

“The pro forma company will have an exciting fully-funded growth pipeline with Calibre’s high-grade Eastern Borosi project and Fiore’s Gold Rock project located approximately 10 kilometres from the operating Pan Mine.

“I look forward to working with the team in Nevada as they have done a great job delivering on Pan and advancing Gold Rock. I believe with increased cash flow generation and balance sheet strength, we can collaboratively unlock significant additional value for both our shareholders.”

Darren Hall, President and Chief Executive Officer of Calibre Mining

Mining Review Sunday Update 17th Oct. 2021

Copper and coal remain the key stories at the moment, as a shortage of supplies in both key commodities is driving their prices higher.

Colonial Coal (TSX.V: CAD) rose to an all time high on the back of M & A speculation as a result of the record high steelmaking (coking) coal price. With both coking and thermal coal scarce, if there ever was a time for Colonial Coal to receive a bid, it's surely now?

Gold had a good week until Friday when US inflation numbers drove erased most of the week's gains in a flash. US$1,000 is proving a resistance point currently, and the price is becoming rangebound.

Copper, uranium, and zinc all had strong weeks, despite the Chinese government looking to release more strategic reserves to try and calm price speculation. LME copper reserves are very low, as are warehouses in Shanghai and other parts of the world.

Full Year Organic Growth Highlights

- At Pan, reported a two year mine life extension, continuing our history of replacing mine depletion through successful exploration
- Additionally at Pan, constructed the Phase 3 heap leach pad with first ore placed in July 2021, providing substantial capacity for the added mine life
- Acquired the past-producing Illipah project, extending our Nevada land holdings to a total of 222 square kilometers or 55,000 acres
- At Gold Rock, we continued our resource expansion and metallurgical drilling program in support of a Feasibility Study. Given our drill success to date, we recently approved an expanded resource drilling program aimed at continued expansion of the Gold Rock mineral resource. We expect to issue the Feasibility Study during calendar Q4 2022 with production at Gold Rock expected in the second half of 2024.

Fiore Gold management comments

"Backed by our consistently strong operating performance, we continue to put capital back into our Nevada assets.

"We have invested in Pan's future, adding two years of mine life and substantial heap leach capacity, and are planning a significant investment in resource expansion drilling at Pan over the next year.

"At the same time, we have meaningfully advanced Gold Rock with extensive drilling to progress the Feasibility Study. Given our exploration success, we have elected to add approximately 130,000 feet of drilling aimed at continued expansion of the Gold Rock mineral resource.

"We believe the modest extension to the Feasibility timeline is well justified given the opportunity to grow the resource.

"Further, we have added a valuable third Nevada asset to our portfolio, the Illipah project.

"Despite the ongoing investment, our cash balance and share count have remained steady, our working capital has improved, and we remain debt free.

"Our financial flexibility is allowing us to advance our goal of having Pan and Gold Rock operate in unison."

Tim Warman, Fiore Gold CEO

Gold Rock Update

Work on the Gold Rock Feasibility Study is proceeding well, with several programs underway including:

- One core and one RC rig currently on site carrying out geotechnical and condemnation drilling.
- Three RC rigs expected to arrive onsite in October and November as part of an expanded resource drilling program.
- Column tests using samples from 15 large-diameter core holes underway at Forte Dynamics in Colorado, with initial results expected in December.
- Background work and contractor selection proceeding for the various Nevada state permit applications required for Gold Rock. The Federal NEPA permitting process was completed in 2018.

Mining Review Sunday Update 19th September

The story of the week again, sadly, was the falling gold price, into the mid 1700's, due to better than expected US retail figures, and a strengthening US dollar.

Iron ore is another casualty, but for a different reason, the Chinese government is limiting steel production for the remainder of 2021, causing a sharp drop in demand for iron ore.

Coking coal is roofing it as supply is tight, bring companies like Colonial Coal into investor focus. The price has more than doubled in a few short months.

Precious metals

Gold	1755	-2%
Silver	22.4	-6%

Palladium	2015	-8%
Platinum	943	-1%
Rhodium	14500	-6%

Gold got thumped by some unexpectedly good US retail numbers, and fell sharply back through to around $1,760. Silver took an ever harder beating, losing 6% in 5 trading days.

Palladium was knocked back on lower car production due to a shortage of micro chips, and reports that some manufacturers are switching to platinum due to the lower cost.

Base metals

Copper	4.22	0%
Nickel	9	-2%
Zinc	1.39	0%
Tin	15.85	3%

Energy Metals

Cobalt	22.19	-1%
Manganese	2.87	-1%
Lithium	22941	+16%
Uranium	44	+9%

Lithium is roaring away as supply concerns are forcing battery companies to try and secure supply at ever higher prices.

Uranium is rising rapidly due to the actions of the Sprott

Physical Uranium Trust buying a significant quantity on the spot market to warehouse, thus driving up prices. Sprott has just announced it is raising another $1 billion for uranium purchases. I wonder if Sprott is related to the Hunt brothers?

Bulk commodities

Iron Ore	102	-25%
Coking Coal	359	+22%

Quite an extraordinary divergence here, with iron ore slumping due to Chinese steel production limitations at the same time as a real coking coal supply crunch.

Miscellaneous

GDX	30.58	-3%
GDXJ	40.48	-1%
Sil	37.46	-4%

Au / Ag Ratio	75.94	+1%
10 yr Tbond	1.371	2%
US index (DXY)	93.26	1%
HUI	237.63	-2%

The precious metal ETF's had predicable falls, given the losses on the other precious metals, as the US dollar strengthened.

The gold / silver ratio is widening again just as it seemed to be returning to a more normal level.
