

Perpetua Resources Price Falling on Bad News

Perpetua Resources \(TSX: PPTA\)

The share price is falling following the News Release on February 13th 2025, and now the lawyers are lining up to sue the company on behalf of investors.

A director has just announced a sale due to “tax reasons”. This is turning sour very quickly,

Comment.

A month ago Perpetua Resources looked a solid hold. The company had received permits for its Stribnite gold / antimony mine in Idaho, USA, despite local opposition from environmentalists.

On the 13th February the company published a press release which mentioned increased capex costs and AISC compared to the 2020 Feasibility Study.

This has caused the share price to go into a steep decline and has now fallen around 33% from the recent peak, including over 9% on Friday 21st February.

Perpetua Resources Price Falling on Bad News, Lawyers Lining Up

Investigation Details

On February 13, 2025, Perpetua disclosed in a filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission that the Company had “released an updated cash flow model for the Stibnite Gold Project (the ‘Project’), which is based, in part, on basic engineering work completed by Ausenco Engineering USA South Inc. (‘Ausenco’) in January 2025 (the ‘Financial Update’).”

Perpetua said that the “Financial Update also applies fourth quarter 2024 cost estimates for construction and operations, consistent with the Basic Engineering analysis, as well as current and consensus commodity pricing for sales” and that “the Financial Model reflects an increase in initial and total capital expenditures and LOM AISC compared to the base model included in the 2020 Feasibility Study” for the Project.

On this news, Perpetua's stock price fell $2.68 per share, or 22.39%, to close at $9.29 per share on February 14, 2025.

City Investors Circle Mining Review 5th January 2025

A week bereft of meaningful news, as it usual in between Xmas and New Year.

Perpetua Resources received the final permit required for their Stribnite gold and antimony mine in the USA.

American Creek announced an amendment to the Plan of Arrangement for the acquisition of the company.

I always doubted whether the plan to acquire the company via the issue of a crypto token would work, and perhaps this is the first sign it hasn't?

Interestingly the announcement includes dropping the penalty for competing bids, a further suggestion that either someone else is interested or the token issue is not going too well I wonder?

Sprott is backing the crypto token so it may happen, but I have serious doubts. It almost looks to me as if they are hoping a competing bid will come in to save face all around.

I am considering selling my holding now.

Perpetua Receives the Final Permit for Stribnite

Perpetua Resources \(TSX: T0\)

The Biden administration on Friday issued the final mining permit for Stribnite Idaho antimony and gold project, a move aimed at spurring U.S. production of a critical mineral at the center of a widening trade war between Washington and Beijing.

Perpetua Receives the Final Permit for Stibnite

Jan 3 (Reuters) – Perpetua Resources' (TSX: T0) received the final mining permit for the Stibnite Idaho antimony and gold project, a move aimed at spurring U.S. production of a critical mineral at the center of a widening trade war between Washington and Beijing.

Highlights

- Permit aims to boost U.S. antimony production amid trade tensions with China
- Perpetua's mine to meet over 35% of U.S. antimony needs by 2028
- Nez Perce tribe consulted, concerns about salmon population remain

Permitting for the mine, backed by billionaire investor John Paulson, comes after Beijing last month blocked exports to the U.S. of antimony, a metal used to make weapons, solar panels, flame retardants and other goods for which there are no current American sources.

The U.S. Forest Service released the final record of decision for Perpetua's Stibnite project – essentially the mine's permit – after an eight-year review process, according to documents published on the agency's website.

Perpetua's mine will supply more than 35% of America's annual antimony needs once it opens by 2028 and produce 450,000 ounces of gold each year.
