121 Mining Conference London Day 1

121 Mining Conference London Day 1

Another appalling performance from South Western Railways resulted in me missing my first two meetings after a cancelled train mid-journey.

The conference was relatively busy, but the number of participating companies seemed smaller to me.

.

121 Mining Conference London Day 1

Another appalling performance from South Western Railways resulted in me missing my first two meetings after a cancelled train mid-journey.

People on a 10 busy 10 coach train had to de-train at Southampton Airport, and, after waiting 30 minutes, then had to join a 5 coach train that was already busy. Needless to say it was like a packed tube train in the rush hour.

Not a great start to the day, arriving at the conference and going straight into a meeting after such an awful journey.

+++++++

The conference was relatively busy, but the number of participating companies seemed smaller than last time to me.

Due to my late arrival I missed meetings with Nicola Mining and Americas Gold and Silver, both of whom I was looking forward to meeting.

I met Kemorland Minerals, an interesting project generator, but it didn't excite me.

I then had interesting meetings with a couple of stocks that I already hold, Silver Storm Mining, and Omai Gold Mines.

Silver Storm Mining is set to commence production within the next six weeks or so, and one would hope for a nice kick in the share price when that occurs. All is currently on track, so here's hoping for a high silver price to accompany the production announcement.

Omai Gold Mines has a PEA ongoing with a release date of around July, which should be a catalyst for a higher share price. Gold resources should be around 8 million ounces or so.

Copper Giant was the first of the new companies I met today, copper exploration in southern Colombia, in a prolific copper belt. I liked the story and will research further, and possibly add it to the tier 4 watchlist.

I also met ASX listed Antipa Minerals and Canadian gold explorer Xali Gold, both of whom I will keep an eye on but I didn't feel as though there was an immediate reason to invest.

+++++++

All in all some interesting meetings and, as a result, I may well increase my shareholding in Silver Storm, and am looking at initial investments in Omai Gold and Copper Giant when the market settles down a bit.

++++++

The live Spot gold price can be found HERE

+++++++

City Investors Circle is based in the financial district in the City of London

We present interesting and exciting junior mining companies listed on the ASX and TSX stock exchanges to a group of city professionals, and private investors, all of whom are active investors with a mandate to invest in junior mining companies.

Our audience is selected and invited individually to ensure interest and relevance for the presenting company.

Meetings are non deal, small group, highly focused and engaged, with a lively Q and A to follow the main presentation.

We create awareness, and maintain interest in presenting companies by disseminating their future news to our entire investor group via email, social media, and our Monthly Review newsletter.

If you wish to present to our select group of active mining investors, please email andrew@city-investors-circle.com

=======

This website is not sponsored, we are truly independent, and will always remain so.

Companies featured here have either presented to the Circle in London, or have been selected because they are considered to have interesting projects, in good jurisdictions, run by an experienced management team.

All information used in the preparation of this communication has been compiled from publicly available sources that we believe to be accurate and reliable, however, we cannot, and do not, guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this.

These articles are for awareness and informational purposes only, and are not recommendations in any form. Always consult an investment professional.

Disclosure

At the time of writing the author holds shares in some of the companies mentioned.