Colonial Coal – Warren Irwin Interview

Colonial Coal (TSX.V: CAD)

Top Canadian Fund manager Warren Irwin, of Rosseau Asset Manager is interviewed about his opinion of Colonial Coal.

This is a rare opportunity to hear the thoughts of a successful fund manager talking about a single stock he knows intimately.

Warren expands at some length about the company and his thoughts for future monitization.

As a shareholder myself I thought it well worth listening to the whole interview, which lasts around 40 minutes.

With deals being done in the Peace River region, as well as in other countries around the world such as Australia, Colonial's large tonnage assets are starting to stand out as one of the few major deposits still in the hands of a junior.

I do feel that with other deals now completed it's only a matter of time before the first bid arrives for one of the few remaining large deposits of quality coking coal available in a tier one jurisdiction.

CEO David Austin has founded two coking coal companies in this region of Canada that went on to be taken out by majors, with Western Canadian Coal going for $3.2 billion to Walter Energy.

Colonial is taking longer to conclude a deal, and there have been some mitigating circumstances such as covid, and Canada's relations with India and China being volatile in recent times. These relations have become warmer and more stable in recent times.

I am a long-term holder of Colonial Coal shares, and plan to hold until the company is acquired or participates in a corporate deal.
