Tinka President Carmen estimates $20 million required for next two years

Tinka Resources Ltd. {TSX.V: TK} President Graham Carman, estimated that it will need about $20 million for its Ayawilca project in the next two years, the zinc-silver-lead-tin project located in the Peruvian department of Pasco.

“We have a very interesting project, which is zinc, which is one of the biggest discoveries in Peru in several years,” Carman said.

The president of Canadian mining company Tinka Resources Ltd.,

Graham Carman, estimated that it will need about $20 million for its Ayawilca project in the next two years, the zinc-silver-lead-tin project located in the Peruvian department of Pasco.

“We have a very interesting project, which is zinc, which is one of the biggest discoveries in Peru in several years,” Carman said.

To read the article in full, please click HERE