

Twitter CEO Dorsey doesn't want to create a crypto currency for Twitter, backs Bitcoin

Crypto news

Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey has stated that he has no intention of creating a Facebook Libra type crypto currency for Twitter, and instead is backing Bitcoin.

Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey stated that there are no plans for a platform-specific cryptocurrency, noting that he will instead focus on promoting Bitcoin

Australian news outlet The Sydney Morning Herald's article published on Sept. 5, stated that Dorsey is confident that Bitcoin is still the most likely candidate to become the internet's native currency.

Dorsey noted "I think open internet standards serve every person better than ones controlled or started by companies."
